Andizhan (40°45' N x 72°25' E)

1. Factory in Stalin

This factory, which produces aircraft parts, is located 4 to 5 kilometers north of Andizhan. The plant is one square kilometer in size, has its own electric power plant, and employs 8,000 workers in three shifts. A railroad line (unidentified) runs through the center of the factory site. It is guarded by 150 MVD troops.

Date of Info: February 1947

2. Oil Pipe-Line

The Neftoprom oil fields are located in mountainous terrain 20 kilometers east of Andizhan. These fields have been exploited for some time, but new drillings are constantly being made. Approximately thirty derricks are operating. Oil is transported, presumably towards Andizhan, by a single pipe-line, 20 cm in diameter, partly above and partly below ground. Pipe-line pressure and production are not known.

Comment: These fields probably belong to the Kalinineft Trust at Tokand.)

Approximately 1200 men are employed in the fields. The manager of Neftoprom is a middle-aged Russian named Rakov.
